

You are Loved

By David J. Stewart

“Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.” —1st John 4:11

Whoever you may be, you are loved. Not only does God love you, but as a born-again believer possessing God's unconditional love in my heart, I also love you in the Lord. I've never made a penny from my ministry, nor on the side selling anything, nor have I ever accepted any donations (although many people have offered to give me money). This ministry is a labor of love and I do it because I love God and sinners.

The world is a cold, hateful and miserable place, where few people care. Trying to find someone who cares nowadays is like looking for a 4-leaf clover. And sadly, many of the people who profess to care have made a business out of it, so they really wouldn't care if they weren't making a buck. That's not genuine care from the heart.

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." —Jeremiah 29:11
